

Services

Speech Therapy

Through our Galesburg clinic, we have speech therapy services available for those clients dealing with communication problems associated with illness or injury that impact the patient's voice, language skills and speech capability.

These issues can be the result of accidents, cleft palate, delayed development, cerebral palsy, or brain injury or stroke, among many other things.